A TWENTY-YEAR LOVE AFFAIR WITH AUSTRALIAN LANDSCAPE

Angela Newberry
ARTIST STATEMENT

A Twenty Year love affair with Australian Landscape is a collection of work in linocut and screenprint which is a homage to the inspiration drawn from wilderness areas, deserts and dunes, wide horizons, strong shapes and the amazing colours to be found in the natural landscape of Australia.

The images in linocuts and screenprints range from the Kimberley cross country camping trips and by boat around the coast from Wyndham to Broome. Trips to Perth touring North including the Pinnacles and Monkey Mia coast during the bush flowering season. Camping trips to Alice Springs, Uluru and Kings canyon producing images of deserts and dunes, rock formations, big skies and water together with bird life and flora.
